been easy. With deadlines, daily commutes, and personal duties, it's tough to find the time to explore new relationships.

That's why I pioneered the POZ4POZ only concept back in the mid 1990's, which led to the creation of Brandon's POZ Party; the POZ4POZ.COM website and this YAHOO! Group. These are all about bringing HIV+ men together, not only those who happen to be single, or those with a partner, but HIV+ men who all have one thing in common, their desire to be comfortable with who they are; comfortable with being HIV+ at work, home and at play.

Whether you're looking for information, a new relationship or just seeking friendships, you can find them here.

THANK YOU for allowing me the opportunity to be your host, and webmaster;
Robert "Brandon" Sandor
