

and features performances by Hedwig and the Angry Inch (nominated for Best Rock Alternative and Best Band/Duo/Group), Joi Cardwell (Best Dance Artist nominee), Lea DeLaria (Best Jazz Artist—huh?) and Me'Shell Ndegéocello (nominated for more things than we can list—hey, we spelled her name, didn't we?).

She Sounds So Good Live, Right Now! Aaaghhh!

The Bowery Ballroom, 6 Delancey St (Bowery), 533-2111, 8pm, $17.50 advance/ $20 at door. Cheaters, players and dirty dogs beware: Kelis (left), the woman behind this year's angriest R&B hit, is live on stage at The Bowery Ballroom tonight. The pink-haired chanteuse will undoubtedly be singing "Caught Out There," featuring the unforgettable rant, "I hate you so much right now! Aaaghhh!" and other selections from her debut CD, Kaleidoscope. The downstairs lounge opens at 7pm, and doors to the music hall open at 8pm, so get your scorned self downtown and let the anger flow.

TUESDAY APRIL 25

Hollywood Queers

Westbeth Theatre Center, 151 Bank St (West St), 307-4100, 8:30pm, $35. Appearing tonight in the Hollywood Queers' center square, er, stage, is Bruce Vilanch, noted comedian, punchline writer and wacky homosexual. His new show, Bruce Vilanch: Almost Famous, will give you a chance to see just how outrageous he can get when he doesn't have to contend with the network censors overseeing the cheeky Whoopi Goldberg game show where he's a regular guest. Keep in mind, though, that there's only 41 performances scheduled, so get your tickets now!

Ten Thousand Stevies? Maniacs!

Jackie Factory @ Mother, 875 Washington St (14th St), 366-5680, 9pm, $15. We know you're on the edge of 17, but try to keep up with the basic math: If Chi Chi Valenti and Johnny Dynell of Jackie Factory (née Jackie 60) host a show featuring 1,000 Stevies per year, how many Stevies will they have hosted in 10 years? (All that baby's breath, with our allergies?) We know there's only one true Stevie Nicks, so worship the goddess at tonight's 10th-Annual Night of a Thousand Stevies at Mother. DJs Billy O, Poison Eve and Craig Spencer will spin nothing but Nicks nuggets for three mesmerizing Stevie stage sets tonight. (Lookout! It's a tsunami of shawls and tambourines!) The one true Stevie has graciously donated memorabilia for tonight's charity auction, slated for 12:30am. It's best to show up early and cut the lines...uh, we mean avoid that line outside.

WEDNESDAY APRIL 26

Can You Really See the People in This Chat Room?

Stonewall, 53 Christopher St (Sheridan Sq), 463-0950, 6:30-10pm, free. Open your eyes, Miss Windows! For starters, Brandon's POZ Socials at Stonewall offer a friendly space where HIV-positive guys can actually get together in person (don't look so confused!) and socialize without having to conduct background checks and switch identities every five minutes. You get just one name at this weekly event—yours. Brought to you by socialite Robert Brandon Sandor each Wednesday, save for the first Wednesday of the month. (That must be when they hold the online anonymous meetings.)

SUNDAY

APRIL 23

LIVE

PERFORMANCE BY CASEY COLLINS

9PM

NOMINATED FOR BEST MALE ARTIST
& BEST DANCE CD

SPLASH

2000

splashbar.com

