Dear Mr. Gardner;

I read your posting to (dated: August 12, 2001) and agree with you that barebacking is, and should be the choice of the individuals who wish to partake.

As a the owner/host of the largest (and apperantly only) HIV+ Party on the East Coast, I am faced with this issue all the time. I promote and support freedom of choice.

At each party or event I host, attendees are informed up front that condoms are available for those who wish to use them. However, if they wish to bareback I have provided them an enviornment where their status is not an issue, thus allowing them to be themselves.

I have been HIV+ since early '84. I live a happy life with a wonderful, healthy, HIV+ husband. You and I both represent a large yet faceless segment of our community who either choose to have condomless sex or choose to watch videos not featuring comdoms. Choice is the absolute right of every informed, consenting adult.

I wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.

Yours Truly;

Brandon
